November - Month of the Holy Souls – In the month of November we remember in prayer the Souls of all our loved ones who have died. Could I ask you to drop in the Pious List Envelopes to the Parish House with the names of your deceased loved ones during the coming week. We confidently ask God to welcome them into the light of his eternal peace.

Galbally Mass on Facebook - Fr Billy Caulfield invites you to join him on his Facebook page (William Caulfield) Tuesday to Saturday at 10am for Mass and also on Sunday mornings.

Sunday Mass in Belleveue - The 9am scheduled Sunday Mass in Bellevue Church will be celebrated in Galbally Church at 9am until further notice.

The Hook of Faith this week – Sunday is the Feast of Christ the King and the last Sunday before Advent. Colette Doherty offers the homily where Christ identifies himself with ‘the least of his brothers and sisters’. We have the usual newsletter insert and an article on the saints by Dominic Ratajczyk. As we journey through November, Philip Quirke reflects on death and hope. We mark the feast of St Columbanus on 23rd November and ‘Red Wednesday’ on 25th November – a day of prayer and solidarity with persecuted Christians. A new video discovers how 88% of Palliative care doctors are opposed to assisted suicide. Finally, Fr Philip Mulryne reflects on ‘Mission and Sport’ in our series on ‘Evangelising Irish Culture’. Check out these and other resources available at www.thehookoffaith.com
